Data Dictionary - Jay Z Samples Dataset - Vol.1
Release Date	The month, day, and year that the album was released
Album Title	The title of the specific album
Song Title	The title of the specific song
Track #	The track number as it appears on that particular album
Producer	The name of the producer(s) involved with the song
Number of Samples	The total number of samples that are included on the specific song
Sample Song Title	The title of the song sampled in the given track
Sample Year	The year the sampled song was originally released
Sample Decade	The decade the sample song was originally released
Sample Genre	There samples are categorized by fifteen different headers. These categories designate the type of sample song incorporated into the track. • Electronic/Disco • Gospel • Hip hop/Rap • Jazz • Jazz/Blues • Latin Pop • Movie • Other • R&B • Reggae • Rock • Soul/Funk • Soundtrack • Spoken World • World
Sample Type	This category explains how the original song is incorporated into the new track. This classification lets users distinguish between a range of sample types such as instrumentation or vocal samples. • Instrumentation: Drums - Sample of drums from the original musical • Instrumentation General – a general category for all musical samples from the original musical composition • Instrumentation: Hook/Riff – Sample of hook/riff from the original musical composition • Movie – line, monologue, or scene from a film • Other – A catchall for multiple elements • Vocal/Lyrical Sample – Lines Words, phrases, ad-libs from a song